

29 JAN 1962

MEMORANDUM FOR: Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT : Security Monitoring of Congressional Hearings

1. Last week a representative of this Office monitored the three days of testimony before the Special Committee on alleged "muzzling" of military officers for any information reflecting on the security of the Agency.
2. This Agency was mentioned only once. This reference was a comparison of the two senior positions of this Agency with that of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, i. e. they are non-policy making positions.
3. Several times during the testimony members of the Committee, particularly Senator Stennis and the Committee Counsel, Kendall, made reference to "Mr. Tully" (presumed to be Andrew Tully) in regard to the policy review of speeches by senior military personnel. No charges were made against Tully but each time his name was mentioned it was in the context of the attempt to determine whether Tully was in his Defense Department position at the time each specific "censor" occurred.
4. Of note is that Mr. William Webb, GS-15, Special Assistant to General Arthur Trudeau, attended all three days of the Hearings and seated himself at the press tables. Even during the appearance of General Trudeau he disassociated himself from the Trudeau group with the exception of getting General Trudeau's coat from outside the committee room and taking it into the committee room (thus allowing General Trudeau to leave the committee room without pause for contact with newsmen). Webb was mentioned in the undersigned's memorandum of 26 January 1962 to Legislative Counsel.
5. A representative of this Office will continue to monitor the Hearings for any information reflecting on the security of CIA when they are resumed.
